

WOMEN IN ILLINOIS SPLIT VOTE BETWEEN WILSON AND HUGHES

plurality for Hughes, and Wilson, gaining all along the line, stands an excellent chance of carrying the State.

NEW MEXICO VOTE CLOSE.

New Mexico, from which returns are few and far between, first favored Hughes but this afternoon all the returns were in favor of Wilson. The Western headquarters of the Democratic National Committee in Chicago claims New Mexico.

Minnesota, if the returns are not turned inside out, will elect Wilson and California will put him away beyond the reach of any minor reverses. But Chairman McCormick of the Democratic National Committee said late this afternoon that Wilson can win without Minnesota and California, although he will get both.

"They called me crazy last night when I said Hughes wasn't elected and every newspaper in New York conceded his election. I am just as right now as I was last night."

Chester H. Rowell, Chairman of the Republican State Committee, claimed California late this afternoon by 6,000. Earlier in the day he placed the Republican plurality at 25,000. The Democrats now claim California by 10,000, minimum.

The latest returns establish that the Congress will be Democratic, irrespective of the outcome of the contest for the Presidency. The House of Representatives will have a Democratic majority of 23 or 24 and the Senate will be Democratic by a majority of two.

Enthusiasm among the 5,000 persons that blocked Forty-second Street in front of the National Democratic headquarters broke all bounds this afternoon when word came down from Chairman McCormick's office that the party leaders claimed the re-election of President Wilson by 288 electoral votes. Former Mayor "Honey" Fitzgerald of Boston, who was in the crowd, suggested an informal parade and the idea was carried with a whoop. He hired a band and the delirious Democrats fell in behind it, with Fitzgerald leading them, and marched down Fifth Avenue, across Thirty-fourth Street to Broadway and up the latter thoroughfare.

Passing the Union League Club, a Republican citadel, the marchers, all wearing Wilson and Marshall placards on their hats, released shouts of triumph. Before returning across Forty-second Street to the starting point the crowd marched past the Hotel Astor, where Mr. Hughes is quartered, shouting "Wilson and Marshall, four years more." A squad of policemen went along with the paraders and maintained order.

CLAIMS OF PARTY MANAGERS.

Of course the party managers are making claims for the candidates that are stronger than the returns. For instance, Vance McCormick, Chairman of the Democratic National Committee, asserted at noon that Wilson's strength is distributed as follows:

The solid South, 149, Arizona 3, California 13, Colorado 6, Idaho 4, Kansas 10, Maryland 8, Missouri 18, Minnesota 12, Montana 4, North Dakota 5, Nebraska 8, Nevada 3, New Hampshire 4, New Mexico 3, Ohio 24, Utah 4, Washington 7, Wyoming 3.

"Delaware, South Dakota and Indiana are not included in this list," said Chairman McCormick. "The chances, however, are better than ever to get two of these States."

Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, the President's son-in-law, was the first member of the Cabinet to visit Democratic National Headquarters this morning. He said:

"There is not the least doubt in my mind that President Wilson has been re-elected. I have just heard from the chairman of the California State Committee that all the returns still coming in out there favor the President. But we can win without California."

The fact that a National election may be decided without the electoral vote of New York is probably the biggest feature in the outcome of this contest. Hayes lost New York, but there are many alive who do not think he was honestly elected. Democratic leaders who have talked all summer about carrying the country without New York were looked upon as eligible to admission in quiet retreats for the mentally shy.

When the overwhelming Republican victory in New York was announced, early yesterday evening, the Democratic leaders were not dismayed. They awaited the returns from the Middle West. Then came the figures showing that Illinois and Wisconsin had gone Republican and that Indiana would probably go Republican. It was conceded that Wilson had a chance to carry Ohio.

McCormick Sends Out Warning To Safeguard Ballot Boxes

McCormick at 6:30 o'clock this morning sent the following telegram to every State and County Chairman in every State where the result of yesterday's election appears to be close:

"President Wilson has been re-elected. Our opponents are desperate. You must personally see that the ballot boxes are guarded and protected and nothing left undone to safeguard the victory."

WILSON AWAKENED WITH REPORTS OF PROBABLE VICTORY

Tomlully Gives Early Day Announcement to President He Has at Least 264 Votes.

(Special to The Evening World.) SHADOW LAWN, LONG BRANCH, Nov. 8.—President Wilson, who had gone to bed early this morning facing what looked like defeat was awakened at 7:30 A. M. by Secretary Tumulty, who gave news of victory. The Secretary had been tabulating returns all night, refusing to believe that his chief had been defeated. As he looked up from his desk in the executive office at Asbury Park and saw the first rays of the sun gladdening the sea he had just finished a very careful calculation. He took up his telephone and awakened the President at Shadow Lawn.

"I am certain," said Mr. Tumulty, "that you have at the very least 264 electoral votes, and the prospect is brighter every minute. You are sure of Minnesota and Kansas, Idaho, California, New Mexico, New Hampshire, Delaware and West Virginia are still in doubt."

Mr. Tumulty came out of his office at 8 A. M. and started for a quick breakfast. He said he had heard from National Chairman McCormick that there were enough electoral votes "put on ice" to make the result certain for Wilson and Marshall. No one who saw Mr. Tumulty could believe that he had been up all night, busy with tally sheets, calculating the chances of his
